Family members and caregivers who may be concerned about a loved ones deteriorating memory can contact Officer James Reardon at (617) 730-2786 for information about our Senior Alert Program.

This program, sponsored by the Brookline Police Department and the Brookline Council on Aging, provides identification bracelets to its participants in the event they become disoriented and are unable to find their way home or provide essential information during a medical emergency.