

From: Stephen [mailto:popper.stephen@gmail.com]
Sent: Tuesday, August 30, 2016 7:48 AM
To: Maria Morelli
Subject: 420 Harvard

Maria

I read the traffic study and I think that it is very sad that they feel a July study - when families are away, kids are at camp, and many seniors in the neighborhood are moving a little slower- is an appropriate comparison. Traffic flow between September to June will not compare to a July study as the community returns to school life in a heavy walking community.

Stephen Popper