3. If no Option selection is made or none is in effect, your allowance will be paid under Option (B).
4. The spousal acknowledgement at the end of this form must be signed if you are married.

Selection of Retirement Option

After reviewing all retirement Options, please sign your name under only one of the Options.

Option (A) No Payment to Beneficiary

Your retirement allowance will be approximately $ annually for life and all payments will cease upon your death. This Option provides for a full retirement allowance payable in monthly installments during your lifetime. All allowance payments will cease upon your death and no benefits will be provided for any survivors.

To the Retirement Board

I choose to have my retirement allowance paid in accordance with the provisions of G.L. c. 32, § 12(2)(a) of the General Laws which provides an allowance as explained above. I understand that this Option provides the largest possible payment to me under the retirement law and that all payments thereunder cease at my death. I also understand that by choosing this Option, I relinquish on the date that my retirement takes effect all claim to my total accumulated deductions with interest and that upon my death my beneficiary (or estate) will have no claim on these monies.

Option (B) Lump Sum Payment to Beneficiary

Your retirement allowance will be approximately $ annually for life. The payments under this Option are smaller than under Option (A). The annuity portion of your allowance is reduced to allow a lump sum benefit for your named beneficiary(ies). Upon your death, your named beneficiary(ies), or if there is no beneficiary living, the person or persons appearing in the judgment of the retirement board to be entitled thereto will be paid the unexpended balance of your annuity account. Please note that the contributions comprising the annuity account will be depleted within approximately twelve to fifteen years depending upon your age at retirement. The longer you live, the less will be paid to your beneficiary(ies) upon your death. If your account has been fully depleted, nothing will be paid. You may designate and change at any time, one or more beneficiaries to receive in designated proportions, or in the alternative, the lump sum Option (B) benefit. This Option takes effect upon your retirement and supercedes any prior beneficiary selections.

To the Retirement Board

I choose to have my retirement allowance paid in accordance with the provisions of G.L. c 32, § 12(2)(b) which provides a cash refund annuity as explained above. I understand that this Option provides for a smaller retirement allowance for life but that if I die before the amount which I have received in annuity payments equals the sum of my total deductions with interest to the date of my retirement, the difference will be paid to my designated beneficiary(ies).

Option (C) Payment of Allowance to Beneficiary

Your retirement allowance will be approximately $ annually for life. Election of Option (C) provides for a monthly retirement allowance during your lifetime that is less than you would receive under either Option (A) or Option (B). Upon your death your designated beneficiary will be paid a monthly allowance for the remainder of his or her lifetime. That allowance will be equal to two-thirds of the allowance that you were receiving at the time of your death. The monthly allowance you receive under Option (C) is based upon life expectancy factors for you and your designated beneficiary. Only your spouse, former spouse who has not remarried, mother, father, sister, brother or child may be designated as your Option (C) beneficiary. The younger your beneficiary, the lesser the amount of your retirement allowance. If, after you retire, your Option (C) beneficiary predeceases you, you will thereafter be paid the full retirement allowance you would have received had you elected Option (A) at the time your retirement allowance became effective. This conversion is commonly referred to as the Option (C) "pop-up". Please note that after the Option (C) "pop-up" takes place you may not name another Option (C) beneficiary or choose another Option.
